GAY PHILLY SONGSTER AIDEN JAMES TO PERFORM @ THE HOTEL CAFE

Hollywood, Calif. –Singer-songwriter Aiden James will perform live at The Hotel Café on Saturday, March 23 at 9PM, Songster Sounds Records announced today.

James is a Philadelphia-based, indie-touring musician who recently premiered his powerful pop single and music video “Colorblind” with OUT Magazine. It received critical acclaim by the magazine as a “masterpiece” and “mesmerizing.” “James could be poised to make the leap from sleepy indie to full-fledged famous,” said the PhillyVoice.

When playing live, James uses acoustic guitars, small synth keyboards, and vocal effect processors, all seamlessly on the fly. He made his first television broadcast debut in 2010 on MTV Logo. His music has climbed the charts to iTunes Top 20, all as a self-taught musician and without the help of a traditional record label. His songs are fresh, polished, and catchy.

“The Hotel Cafe has a special place in my heart. They’ve nurtured me from the beginning as a performer breaking into the LA music scene,” James says. “As a touring musician, it feels like a home away from home.”

The Hotel Cafe is located at 1623 ½ N. Cahuenga Blvd 90028 in Hollywood. Tickets are $10, available in advance online at hotelcafe.com and at the door. Concert is on Stage 2. Doors open at 8:30PM. Show starts at 9PM, ending at 10pm.

Aiden James is available for phone interviews via Ash Lewis info@aidenjamesmusic.com.
